

Constitution

1. The name of the Society is the Canada-India Village Aid Association.

2. The purposes of the society are charitable and more particularly:

(a) To solicit, receive and disburse funds (including gifts), to be used in the establishment and maintenance by qualified persons and organizations in economically underprivileged areas of India of programmes and facilities, using the Kabliji Hospital in Haryana State as a nucleus and an example, for medical care, for village development related to the promotion of public health, and for industries, crafts or other activities that may help to make such programmes self supporting, and in the establishment and maintenance of research facilities and programmes related to such medical care, village development and activities aimed at creating self support;

(b) To produce and distribute, in connection with the dissemination of information about the programmes and facilities for medical care and research referred to in (a) above, all kinds of material including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, motion picture films, television programmes, records, audio and video tapes, books, pamphlets, posters and press releases;

(c) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire lands, buildings, easements and property, real and personal, which may be requisites for the purposes of or capable of being conveniently used in connection with any of the objects of the society.

3. The society shall be carried on without purpose or gain for its members and any profits or other accretions to the society shall be used for promoting its objects.

4. In the event that the society should at any time be wound up or dissolved, the remaining assets, after payment of all debts and liabilities, shall be turned over to a recognized charitable organization in the province of British Columbia or elsewhere in Canada, as directed by its members.

5. Clauses 3, 4 and 5 of the Constitution are unalterable in accordance with Section 22 of the Society Act.

By-Laws

The By-laws of the society are those set out in Schedule B of the Society Act.

Dated the 19th day of August, 1981